

X2 (UK) Ltd Health and Safety Policy

General Statement

The Directors of X2 (UK) Ltd place safety as the most important factor in their activities as a Logistics service provider. We accept that a quality business is by definition a safe business and it follows that minimising risk to people, property and our customers goods cannot be separated from any other business objectives.

It is acknowledged that the health effects at work may also influence an employee's health away from the work environment and that healthy employee's are by nature happier and more productive employees.

X2 are committed to continuous improvement to promote and maintain a high level of focus on health and safety from staff at all levels. Training, information and instruction will be provided to assist in creating a safe environment with safe equipment and competent employees. Our approach will ensure consistent planning, implementation, monitoring, measurement, and review of safety performance at X2.

We will as far as reasonably practicable, provide a safe place of work, for our employees, visitors and any other persons affected by our activities.

X2 (UK) Ltd recognise The Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 and other associate regulations. It follows that we will commit to meeting the requirements of these legal responsibilities, seeking competent advice and assistance where necessary. Our aim will be not simply complying with the law, but to achieve industry leading levels of performance in health and safety management.

The Organisation

Maintaining the health, safety and welfare of the employees of X2 is the ultimate responsibility of the Managing Director who is responsible for the implementation of this policy and the monitoring and review of its relevance and effectiveness.

The nominated competent person is Vic Faulkner who is responsible for carrying out the policy, reviewing procedures, monitoring and reporting on incidents, ensuring safety examinations and training is in line with the policy and consulting with the employees and advising the Managing Director.

Every employee of X2 has a responsibility to themselves and their colleagues as well as to visitors to the X2 premises and to ensure that they take reasonable care of themselves and their environment to minimise any risk to themselves or others who may be affected by their acts or omissions.
